

ITALIANS STONE GERMAN VESSELS

Riot in Which Many Are Hurt
Marks Sailing of Reservists From Boston.

BOSTON, Aug. 16.—A riot in which revolver shots were freely exchanged, in which the interned German steamships America and Cincinnati of the Hamburg-American line were stoned and members of their crews injured and several policemen hurt so badly that they had to have hospital treatment, marked the sailing of 1,300 Italians on the liner Canopic last night.

The body of reservists was said to be the largest to leave on one ship since the beginning of the war. It was composed of Italians from various New England cities.

They paraded to the ship in two sections, one of which engaged in a disturbance in North square during which three policemen were injured, one being stabbed and 10 Italians were arrested.

Arriving at the piers where the Canopic and Cincinnati were moored the crowd spied two steamships of the Cincinnati and attacked them. The two were joined by a watchman and three were badly hurt when rescued by the police.

América, at the police interference the crowd commenced to stone the big German liners, smashing port lights and dock fittings and injuring several sailors. They then stoned the customs house, but were driven back by policemen armed with revolvers. The police fired into the air to halt the crush and their shots were answered from the crowd.

French using gas bombs More Deadly Than Those of the Germans Is Claimed.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—The French are now using gas bombs more deadly than any that have been employed by the Germans, according to a statement by Prof. Daniel Berthelot, the famous chemist, published today. Prof. Berthelot says:

"The Germans have good reason to regret that they began the use of asphyxiating gas in warfare. They have forced us to resort to kind and in this sort of offensive we have quickly attained a manifest superiority. None of the means to which they have resorted to protect themselves against the effects of our asphyxiating bombs is successful. Cyanhydric gas, the most terrible of poisons, inflicting instant death, was discovered by me."

INVENTOR DIES.
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The death of Edward Hett, inventor of the multi-color printing press, has been announced at his home in Staten Island. He had suffered from paralysis for a short time. He was born in Chicago 48 years ago, but went to New York when in his teens.

VISITS FRONT.
PARIS, Aug. 16.—Rudyard Kipling, the famous English author, is on a visit to the French front.

FROM TWO HANDKERCHIEFS.
A most practical bag can be made of two handkerchiefs. Of course, the larger the handkerchiefs, the more capacious the bag, so consider the use to which the bag will be put before selecting the foundation for the receptacle.

Whether the handkerchiefs be large or small, they are treated in like manner. Turn one corner of each handkerchief back for just a short space and hold it down with a small button. Join the sides of the two handkerchiefs together and finish the sides with a picot edging, using the picot on the turned-back corners also. Ribbon run through casing can be used at the top of the bag, but an embroidery hoop is better for the purpose, as it holds the bag open and makes it more accessible. Blue ribbons attached to the sides of the bag add a pretty note and supply a hanger.

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt.—"We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would be cold. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me."—MRS. MARY GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

STORIES ARE DENIED

German Papers Say No Steps Made Toward Peace.

BERLIN, Aug. 16. (wireless via Sayville).—The North German Gazette officially denies the stories circulated from London that the kaiser, through the king of Denmark, offered peace terms to Russia, which were rejected. German papers generally declare it the height of nonsense to assume that, while German armies drive the Russians from defeat to defeat and occupy one big fortress after another, Germany should offer Russia peace conditions. The Lokal Anzeiger adds that "one of the many British mistakes in this war is to insinuate that Germany is longing for peace just at the moment when her armies are victorious along the whole line."

FORMER SOLDIER BEARS 29 SCARS

Ex-Private of Gordon Highlanders is Doing Sea Work Now for His Health.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Ex-Private John Costello of the Gordon Highlanders has unconsciously merged into Steward Costello of the American liner New York, proudly showed the scars of 29 bayonet and sword wounds in his left arm and shoulder when his ship arrived Sunday.

"I got mine 'somewhere in France,'" he said in a rich cockney voice that belied his regimental badge. "The blighters got me right through the wrist with a bayonet thrust first."

"They patched me up at the field ambulance and I went back in the trenches, and I got 'em one after another then. At last I got so many that the doctor ordered me back home."

"When I got this one," he said, pointing to a bayonet wound in the shoulder, "I saw 150 men in my regiment knocked out in five minutes. We were hit pretty bad, but the Germans got theirs too."

"The doctor ordered me to take a sea trip, so I got a job as steward here for one trip, and I'm going back to the trenches when we get back. I don't believe the German is made who can get me."

Costello said he had a silver plate in his forearm where the bayonet went right through.

ANSWERS LETTER.
PARIS, Aug. 16.—A dispatch to Fouriers News agency from Rome says the German emperor in answer to the peace letter of the pope, declared his willingness to entertain peace negotiations provided Germany's foes made the first overtures. Austria made a similar reply to the pope's letter, the dispatch adds.

STRIKE ENDS.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 16.—The strike of the union freight teamsters, chauffeurs, stablemen and helpers, which began last Friday, ended Sunday night when 1,500 members of the union agreed to accept a wage increase of approximately 50 cents a man weekly and a reduction in work time.

THE MEN WILL RETURN TO WORK MONDAY.

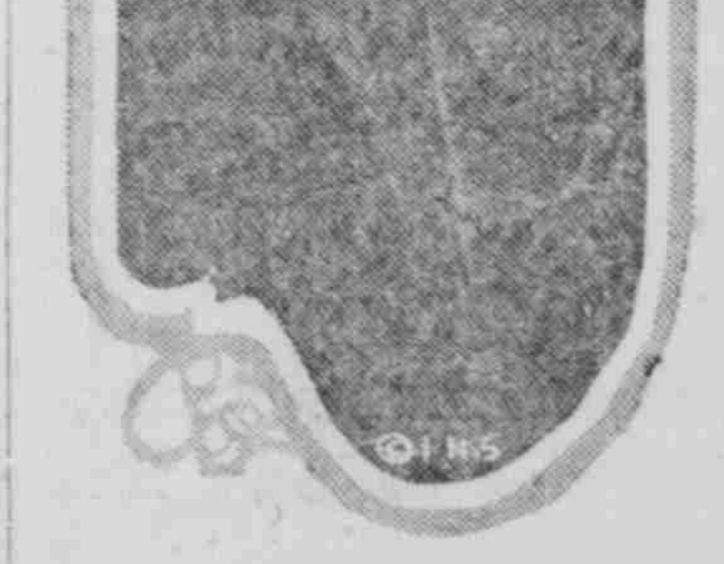

HAS NEW SCHEME.
ROME, Aug. 16.—The newspapers report that an Italian navy officer has invented a new method of locating submerged submarines.

HUMOR ON THE LINKS.
"Fore!" shouted the golfer. But the woman on the course paid no attention.

"Fore!" he repeated, with not a bit more effect than the first time.

"Try her with 'three-ninety-eight,'" suggested his partner. "She may be one of those bargain-counter fiends."

BOLIVIAN MINISTER IS AT CONFERENCE

SENOR IGNACIO CALDERON
This picture of the Bolivian minister to the United States was made at the Baltimore hotel during the conference of the six Central and South American ambassadors with Sec'y of State Lansing, at which a peace plan was drafted to be submitted to the warring chiefs of Mexico in an effort to get them to assent to a conference.

KILL FIVE BANDITS IN BORDER FIGHT

Mexican bandits found dead after the fight at the ranch house in Los Noria, Texas, awaiting identification.

Fighting for two hours against odds of four or more to one, 15 American civilians and soldiers held off a band of Mexican bandits at Los Norias on Sunday afternoon until help arrived. Five of the Mexicans were later found dead on the field, and many others were known to have been killed, but were dragged away by their comrades during the retreat. One Mexican woman was shot to death by the bandits because she had recognized some of the members of the band. This seems to bear out the allegations that a well organized plot has been concocted to burn and pillage all that part of Texas lying between the Rio Grande and the Nueces rivers, and that this attack was but the first of several contemplated by the band of Mexicans. Two Americans were severely wounded but will live.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

"The Mystery of Mary," a three part Vitaphone, is the feature at the Auditorium today. It is produced with an excellent cast and tells an interesting story of how Tyrone Dunham meets in a most peculiar manner and under the strangest circumstances, a beautiful young girl to whom he offers assistance, she learning she has no money or friends in the city. She will not tell her name, but seeing she is evidently a girl of refinement, he respects her wishes and asks no more questions. He borrows his sister's hat and coat and buys the girl a ticket for Chicago and puts her on the train. A short time afterwards he has occasion to go to Chicago on business and there he accidentally meets her. The girl, employed by a friend of his as a parlor maid, she then tells him her story; it seems that her cousin had coveted her fortune which had been left to her and had everything prepared for railroading her to the same asylum, then he, posing as her husband, was to manage her fortune. On the train she had overheard the plot, escaped and met Tyrone.

"Charley" Chaplin is a single reel comedy, "Mabel's Marriage," and the regular episode of "Diamond from the Sky" are also on today's bill. Tomorrow Reine Davies will be seen in a five part picture of "Sunday," a play made famous by Ethel Barrymore. Sunday is an orphan girl brought up like a boy by four lumberjacks. When her lover proves false and tries to betray her, they kill him. She is sent to a convent and educated and attracts the love of an honest Englishman. "On the Job," a Mina comedy, is on the same bill.

AT THE INDIANA.
Popular favorite at the screen will be seen at the Indiana today when Francis X. Bushman is featured in the romantic drama, "The Battle of Love." This story originally appeared in the Woman's magazine, and received the unanimous approval of many thousands of readers. The story was written by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow and is one of the three complete picture mystery plays that have been produced the greatest success in the motion picture world. On the same program will be seen "The Beast," a Lubin drama in which a bully meets his just deserts. Edgar Jones and Louis Mortelle have a very realistic fight. "The Bridge of Sighs," a picture of a young bridge contractor who allows himself to be entangled in a crooked deal, will also be shown.

On Tuesday Winifred Greenwood, a popular film player who is personally known in South Bend, will be seen in a two reel romance, "The Castle Ranch." Miss Greenwood was a popular star of the Indiana Stock company and made many friends in South Bend who will welcome her reappearance on the screen. On the same program will be seen "The Tiger Cub," a Selig zoo picture; "Love's Way," a Vitaphone romance, and another comedy.

AT THE LASALLE.
An English star of prominence, Lawrence D'Orsay, will be seen at the Lasalle theater today in a pleasing comedy drama, "The Earl of Pawtucket." This drama was written by Augustus Thomas and used by Mr. D'Orsay for several seasons on the legitimate stage. Prominent in the support is Rosemary Theby, who is attractive and amusing as the young divorcee. She plays opposite the star and together they have many amusing scenes. D'Orsay as the monocled English aristocrat, is a delightfully original character. The play is one that is particularly well adapted to the screen, and is filled with cleverly arranged scenes bringing out the eccentricities of the Englishman. On the same program will be seen "The Rise and Fall of Officer 13," a Nestor comedy.

On Tuesday will be seen a new Paramount star, Violet Heming, in "The Running Fight," from the book of the same name by William Hamilton Osborne. The production is in six reels, setting forth an interesting and complicated tale of finance and romance in New York. Miss Heming has the prominent role of the daughter of an unscrupulous banker who stoops to actual thievery to add to his wealth. Robert Cummings, William T. Carleton and Clarissa Selwynne are prominent in the cast.

AT SPRINGBROOK.

Just the simple white dress you already have; that is all that is necessary to make you a participant in the fete at SPRINGBROOK PARK ON WEDNESDAY, AUG. 18th. Do not wear a hat as it may detract from the white dress rather than add to its effectiveness.

What young lady's eyes would not sparkle with joy and delight if she found herself the possessor of a diamond ring just like her grown up sister wears. The young miss appearing in the White Dress Parade whose costume and grace of manner the judges think most worthy of the title will be chosen queen and receive just such a diamond as her heart desires.

Three maids of honor will also receive diamond rings, real cut stones, not so large as that given the queen, but large enough to thrill their little hearts.

If you have not sent in your name just come to the park on Wednesday dressed in white and enter the parade.
